

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS at the Elba Elementary School for the coming year were elected prior to the completion of the school year. Elected President was Doug Martin.

Named to serve with Martin were Anita Mobley as Vice President and Lisha Rushing as Secretary. Each class at school will have representatives on the student council.

The first goal of the group is "Polishing Our Image." They started by placing trash cans on the campus. They are also working to improve the impression made on others, dining room manners, manners at public gatherings, courtesy and respect for property, playground behavior, church courtesies, home manners and attitudes, care and safety on the school bus.

Luverne Plant Watched By Well Wishers

All Alabamians interested in the industrial development of their State are watching with keen interest as a new program gets underway in Luverne in Crenshaw.

Monday, June 7, first training sessions were held there when 67 trainees began preparation for employment by the Luverne Shoe Company. Training is being done at State expense, and when the plant starts into production of women's fashion shoes in August they will have a trained force skilled in the operation of modern machines.

Officials of the parent firm, SCOA Industries of Ohio, chose the State of Alabama for the location of their new plant partly because of this new training program for new and expanded industries. Other Southern states were in competition for this shoe factory, which will eventually employ up to 300 persons.

The new program represents a coordinated effort between the Alabama Development Office and the State Department of Education to attract new industry.

Camp For Crippled Children To Open

The name to remember—CAMP ASCCA—the comprehensive camping, recreation, and rehabilitation facility to be built by the Alabama Society for Crippled Children, Inc., on a beautiful 230-acre site on Lake Martin. The land, leased from the Alabama Power Company, is in Tallapoosa County.

Volunteers in 67 counties are making every effort to raise the one and one-half million needed to begin construction before the end of the year. All contributions are being credited to quotas established for each county. Funds will be sought from civic and fraternal organizations and clubs, business firms, foundations and interested individuals.

CAMP ASCCA will give handicapped people of all ages the opportunity to enjoy recreational facilities for camping, fishing, boating, swimming, ball games and other wholesome outdoor activities. There will be some type of recreation for all, whether they are unable to walk, see, hear, use their hands or think normally, and for those who may be emotionally disturbed or mentally retarded.

Dr. Woodrow W. Elliott, President of the Institute for Deaf and Blind at Talladega, is chairman of the CAMP ASCCA committee. Dr. Elliott said 50 to 75 campers will be expected initially, but ultimately 250 will be served on a year-round basis. An outstanding professional staff of therapists, counselors, instructors, and others trained for rehabilitation and recreation work will provide the skill needed to speed up the rehabilitation process through physical, personal and social adjustment.

Never again will blind persons be without a place to fish in safety; nor will a little girl be without first hand knowledge of nature's wonders; nor will a boy on crutches be unable to hold and pet animals or even ride a horse.

CHEERLEADERS CLINIC PLANNED

Registration is now underway for the third annual Cheerleaders' Clinic at Troy State University to be held July 25-30 on the University campus. The deadline for registration is July 1 for the clinic sponsored by the Alabama High School Athletic Association. Directors Mrs. Tom Calvin and Mrs. Elizabeth Hatch have urged that all participants register early for the clinic this year.

The clinic will provide intensive training in all phases of cheerleading activities for the high school yell squad by the experienced staff. Participants must procure the AHSAA form from their coach or principal and send this form to the University to be fully registered for this year's activities.

Clinic officials are expecting one of the largest turnouts yet for this season's summer training session.

More Factory-Built Housing Is Forecast

Factory-built housing will surpass on-site home construction by the end of the decade, according to a magazine published by the New York Stock Exchange.

The article says assembly-line construction will provide an opportunity for greater quality control, the houses will be less expensive because of volume discounts on purchase of materials, and there will be fewer construction delays because of weather.

Junior College Adds Aeronautical Degrees

Two additional degrees, Flight Technology and Aerospace Drafting and Design Technology, have been added to the joint two-year degree programs offered by Alabama Institute of Aviation Technology at Ozark and Enterprise State Junior College beginning in September, 1971.

In a joint announcement made today by Troy C. Tullis, Director of the Aviation Institute, and B. A. Forrester, President of the Junior College in Enterprise, the new programs were revealed. "These two additional degrees in applied science in four areas: Avionics, Aviation Maintenance, Flight Technology and Aerospace Drafting and Design Technology," Tullis said.

Under the joint program a student will be given 65 quarter hours credit for the aviation training received at the Institute and will earn 31 quarter hours credit in general education taught by college instructors from ESJC in evening classes at the Aviation Institute.

The general education courses to be offered at the Aviation Institute will include English, history, psychology, speech, mathematics, health and science.

County Doctors Work With University

Physicians in Coffee County have been giving life to some babies who otherwise might not have survived birth.

Through careful preparation for the birth of each baby whose mother has the Rh negative blood factor, doctors here are virtually guaranteeing normal birth for such children.

Cooperating with specialists at the University of Alabama in Birmingham (UAB), physicians here are removing samples of fluid from the wombs of pregnant women who have the blood factor, sometimes as early as fifteen weeks before delivery.

The amniotic fluid is sent to Dr. George Cassidy at UAB. Simply by applying sophisticated laboratory techniques, he and his associates can determine whether there is any danger to the baby. Dr. Cassidy, who has UAB medical school appointments in obstetrics-gynecology and pediatrics, is director of the Newborn Division in the Department of Pediatrics.

County Doctors Work With University

If the fluid turns out to be normal, additional amounts are sent to Cassidy every few weeks to determine if an abnormality has developed.

If a deviation is detected, Dr. Cassidy can advise the mother as to how much danger the child may be in. If the situation is found to be completely out of hand, the baby's life may still be saved through early delivery and subsequent blood transfusion to correct the abnormality.

But without such a test in advance the baby would be doomed.

As doctors in Alabama begin to take advantage of UAB analysis of amniotic fluid, more lives are being saved.

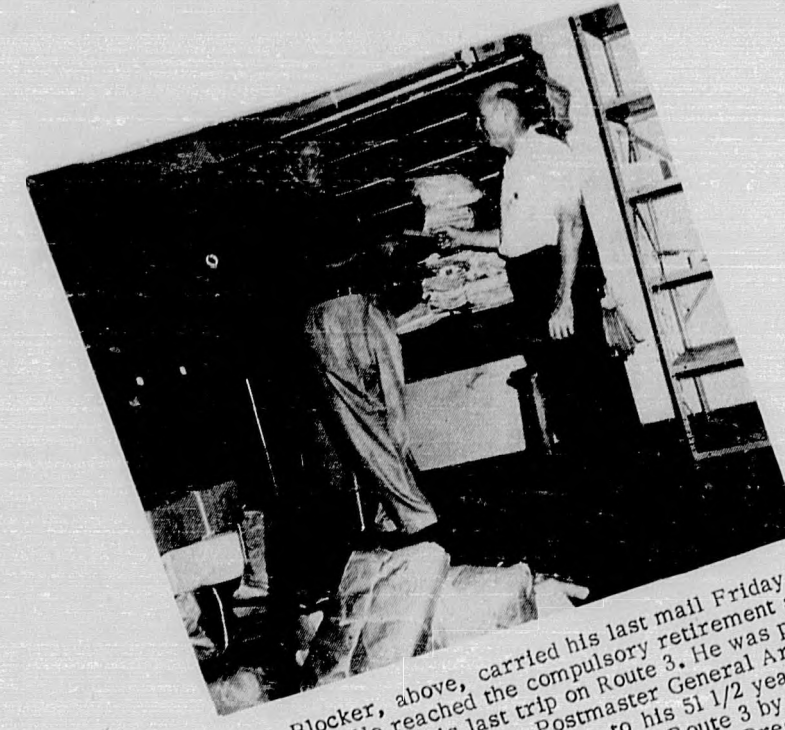

Already programs have been started with the cooperation of UAB in several Alabama cities to establish laboratories similar to that of Dr. Cassidy.

Miss Ellen Avant Marries

Ray Donaldson On June 11

The First United Methodist Church of Opp was the setting on Friday evening, June 11, for the wedding of Miss Ellen Avant and Ray Donaldson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Avant of Opp and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Donaldson of Curtis.

of white gladioli and spect-men daisies. In the choir loft, a background of palms was of much beauty, flanked on either side by arches, holding white candles. In the center of this, was a large candle tree in sunburst effect, featuring an arrangement of white gladioli, majestic daisies and magueyette daisies interspersed with greenery. At either end of the choir rail, on a lower level, were brass candle holders casting a soft glow over exotic palm trees placed at either end.

A program of nuptial organ music was presented by Mrs. Sam Peebles of Birmingham, cousin of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome full length wedding dress of white peau de soie, extending into a chapel train. The empire bodice was of Alencon lace, featuring tiny self covered buttons down the front; the lace sleeves were full and the dress was completed with a mandarin collar. The full length chapel train was bordered in lace, with tiny self covered buttons and lace down the embroidered panel. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of Alencon lace, embroidered in seed pearls. Her bouquet was a cascade of white daisies and gypsophylla.

Miss Judy Wallace of Browns, Alabama, was Maid of Honor and Catherine Critchton, niece of the bride from Decatur, Georgia, was Junior Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were: Miss Jane Donaldson, sister of the groom of Curtis, Alabama; Miss Ann Johnson of Opp, Alabama; Miss Deborah Scottfield and Miss Martha Spencer of Opp, Alabama.
